ENGLISH NEWSPAPERS, MAGAZINES, STATIONERY, PAPER, TYPE, PRINTS, MUSIC, &c.

Old established newspaper agency at Liverpool, (of 25 years standing) - Wilmer & Smith, 32 Church street, Liverpool, desire to call the attention of the proprietors of public News Rooms and Libraries, private gentlemen, keepers of hotels, booksellers, private gentlemen, and others resident in the United States, Canada, and Nova Scotia, to their old and extensive Newspaper and Periodical establishment, which has been carried on by them at Liverpool for the last 20 years, and to state that they continue to forward to the principal commercial ports of Canada and the United States all the British newspapers, magazines, periodicals, new books, with much more efficiency, and at lower prices, than any other establishment in England.

Wilmer & Smith's agencies and connections with the London and Provincial newspapers enable them to forward the very latest and express editions by the packets and other sailing ships, and also by the steam ships sailing from Liverpool and other English ports.

They believe that their establishment is peculiarly adapted for supplying the American public most efficiently with English papers and literature, and for a confirmation of this opinion, they have great pleasure in referring to Messrs. Harnden & Co. of New York, as one of the principal agents of that firm (Mr. D. Briggs, Jr.) who is personally acquainted with the establishment, with their entire business and its management.

Wilmer & Smith will execute all orders for new and old books, periodicals, paper, stationery, type, and every article used by bookellers, stationers, and printers, for a commission of 5 per cent. (which is 20 per cent. in favor of the purchaser.) Letters directed should be addressed to "Wilmer & Smith, 32 Church street, Liverpool," or orders will be received at any of Messrs. Harnden & Co's express establishments in the United States.

The following are Wilmer & Smith's prices of London and other British newspapers, which will be found lower than supplied by any other house in England, for payment in advance.

POETS AND POETRY OF AMERICA.

JUST published by CARY & HART, Philadelphia, The Poets and Poetry of America, with a historical introduction, by Rufus W. Griswold, in 1 large octavo volume, handsomely printed on fine paper, and illustrated by portraits of Bryant, Sprague, Longfellow, Dana, and Halleck, and a beautiful vignette.

This is the most valuable publication of the season. No collection of American poetry has ever been made at all comparable to this, whether we regard the completeness of the work, or the taste displayed in the selection. The work comprises selections from eight hundred of our Poets, whose productions are prefaced by neat biographies; and in an Appendix are contained selections from various Authors who, without pretending to the rank of Poets, have yet written occasional verses. Where the poet has published an edition of his own works, the selections are comparatively few; but where the author has left his works to take care of themselves, the extracts have been more voluminous. This is a praiseworthy feature, since it preserves to us a collected volume of the works of Whittier, Sprague, and others. The longest poems of Drake, Sprague and Whittier, appear in this collection. We dismiss this national work with the assurance that every American who loves his country's muse, will possess himself of an early copy.
